

A Message from the Lieutenant Governor

As Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia, it is my great pleasure to share congratulations to the recipients of the 2018 awards on behalf of the Chartered Professionals in Human Resources of British Columbia and Yukon.

I am very happy to recognize the recipients of the Fellow Chartered Professional in Human Resources, the Award of Excellence-HR Professional of the Year and the Rising Star Award. Human resources is an essential part of business and HR professionals embody a commitment to strategic, people-centric practices which contribute to excellent organizations that operate with respect and reliability.

This year's recipients represent the best of human resources over a wide array of capacities: Michelle Sing, recipient of the Award of Excellence-HR Professional of the Year, has proven to be a dedicated leader within her field; Tierra Madani, the recipient of the Rising Star Award, has demonstrated the potential to go far and spark inspiration along the way; and the individuals recognized as Fellow Chartered Professional in Human Resources— Mike Cass, Barry Cook, Hugh Finlayson, Denise Lloyd, Shannon Railton, Susan Ryan and Terrence J. Schmaltz— have all shown the integrity and drive required to be awarded this prestigious title.

On behalf of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, thank you to all of the recipients for your dedication and hard work in providing the best of service in your field.

Sincerely,

The Honourable Janet Austin, OBC
Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia
